Warning – Free Controls of aircraft/sailplane

Control before any flight that the apparel don't influence the steering and controls of your aircraft in negative way. Our products have been tested and checked in the most common types of aircrafts. Since there are much different kind of aircrafts and types, it is not possible to test und check our products in all models of aircrafts. Because of this reason, the possibility and danger exist, that certain products do not guarantee the free steering and controls of your aircraft.

Because of this reason check and control beside the official Aircraft Checklist the following points:

- Check the controls (stick, rudder, trims and airbrakes) for free movement throughout their range.
- Check especially all the controls with open and closed zippers, Velcro fastener and pockets and ensure that you don't catch/hang on anything or that your controls are limited.

If you observe, that a product from MILVUS influence the steering and controls of an aircraft in negative way, we ask you to inform us immediately. This allows us to inform and call attention to other clients. In addition send us a photo and an explanation from the observed limitation of steering and controls of aircraft with the exact type of aircraft at info@milvus.aero

Together with the sales of receipt you're enable to send the product back to MILVUS. After the reception of the goods he amount will be paid back within a few days. Therefore follow the Instructions of returns under <http://www.milvus.aero/retouren>
